LEARN WITH YOUR DOG

This program is about building an awesome, adventure-filled life for yourself and your dog. My passion is getting to know you and your dog as the unique individuals you are, and finding training goals and approaches that work for YOU!

A FULL DAY (3-5 HRS) JUST FOR YOU AND YOUR DOG, MEETING YOU WHERE YOU ARE!

- ✓ 1st hr: exploration. We get to know each other: what goes well already? Where is room for improvement? What do you want to accomplish with your dog?
- ✓ 2nd hr: finding solutions together based on your training ethics and living situation! Experimenting and having fun with your dog!
- ✓ 3rd: we draft a training plan for the next 4 weeks while your dog takes a break.
- ✓ 4th: I coach you through implementing the plan!
- ✓ I'll check in with you 4 weeks later and we decide whether you'd like another training day or are well on your way to your goals!

TL;DR (THE FINE PRINT)

This program is designed for a single day.

EXAMPLE DAY

- ✓ I'll leave my house at 11:00 and get back home at 4:00pm. The time between these hours—minus my commute—is yours!
- ✓ 10:45 We get to know each other: you, your dog, me, your family. I interact with your dog if appropriate and observe you and your dog introducing a new person into the home etc. And
- ✓ we discuss and try out different possible approaches with your dog: what treats do they like? How do they respond to X technique? How do you feel about Y philosophy? Think of this as me being a tour guide who is here to help you find the training path you'll most enjoy.
- ✓ 12:00 We draft a 4-week training plan while your dog takes a break.
- ✓ 12:45PM I coach you through practicing with your dog—both at home and on a neighborhood walk we all go on (if relevant).
- ✓ 1:45PM I answer any last questions.

TRAINING PHILOSOPHY

- ✓ My job is to make myself superfluous by empowering you to problem-solve with your dog or teach them new skills independently in the future.
- ✓ I teach primarily via positive reinforcement (reward-based methods.) That said, my priorities are to be kind and effective and find the training approach that best fits you, whatever this means for you. I'm your tour guide—you call the shots!
- ✓ We will integrate the “tools” of your choice (different collars, leashes, food, toys etc.) and avoid the ones you don't want to use. There are MANY ways to train a dog! They are not “better” or “worse”—it's all about finding what is right for you and your dog.

WHERE YOUR MONEY GOES (AKA WHY IS THIS TRAINER SO EXPENSIVE?)

- ✓ Paying expat clients are a small part of my work with dogs and humans. I spend the majority of my time creating free resources (tutorials, blog posts, podcast) available to anyone and offer free classes to those who can't afford me. This is why my prices for expats are higher than they might be if you worked with someone else.
- ✓ I prioritize continuing my education through in-person and online seminars. Since a lot of courses, conferences and seminars are either abroad or billed in USD or EUR, what I spend for an hour of furthering my education tends to be more than what I myself earn in an hour.
